

Welcome!

June 13, 2018

- Please introduce yourself, organization, and Collaborative in the chat box.
- Answer our check-in question: What NGCP resources do you plan on using this summer?

Photos courtesy of Digital Media Lab

Agenda

- Network Project Brief Introduction
- Network Project Experiences
  - Washington
  - Oregon
- Collaborative Success and Challenge Sharing
- Champions Board Resources
- NGCP Updates
- Closing

Network Projects: Introduction and Experiences

Ryan Driscoll,
Informal Science Educator,
Woodland Park Zoo
(Seattle, WA)

Rachel Kessler,
Master Trainer and Curriculum
Developer, OregonASK
(Oregon's State-wide
Afterschool Network)

WOODLAND
PARK ZOO

Woodland Park Zoo and SAC

WOODLAND PARK ZOO SAVES WILDLIFE AND INSPIRES EVERYONE TO MAKE CONSERVATION
A PRIORITY IN THEIR LIVES.

ZOO.ORG

- Inquiry-based
- Connection to nature and empathy
- Engaging communities outside of zoo grounds
- Reaching underserved audiences
- Citizen Science focus
- STEM identity
- Built for people who aren't science experts
- Tied to personal Actions

Connections to Other Organizations

OregonASK partnership with National Girls Collaborative Project

2014 Oregon Girls Collaborative Project

Gathering partners and participants across the state

2014-2018 Oregon Shares free professional development with afterschool programs throughout the state.

SciGirls PD and Screenings, Seasons 1-4

Invention X

Cornell Bird Sleuth

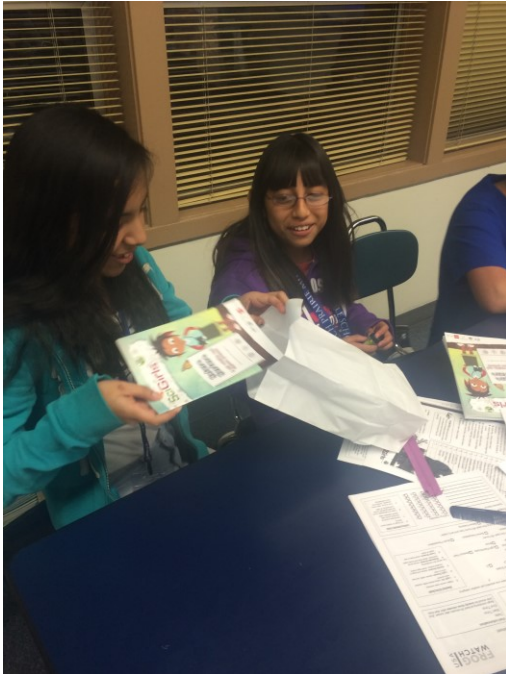

Smithsonian Latino Virtual Museum

Cryptoclub

Science Action Club

Girls STEAM Ahead

Leap in to Science

We have shared PD at our state wide conference, both through our own trainers and through NGCP affiliated trainers. We have offered free or very low cost training to afterschool programs. We also provide quarterly training for programs, events such as SciGirls Season Three episode screenings.

Questions?

Photo courtesy of NASA Goddard Space Flight Center

Champions Board Worksheet & Matrix

Creating Your Champions Board Worksheet

Who will help us meet the goals of our Collaborative?

Name/Organization	Why?	Who will contact?

Sharing and Discussion

- Successes!
- Challenges?

NGCP Updates

- No community meetings in July or August
- September Community Meeting, September 12
- NGCP Annual Survey
- The Connectory Talking Points document has been updated and is available on external NGCP public SharePoint:
<http://sharepoint.ngcproject.org/The%20Connectory/Forms/AllItems.aspx>

Have a wonderful summer!

