Erin Hogeboom: Hello and thank you for joining NGCP's quarterly National Champions Board meeting! Please introduce yourself and your organization here in the chat, as well as answer our check-in question: What personal or professional benefits do you receive by serving on the NGCP National Champions Board?

Casi Herrera: Hello everyone! Welcome!

Kathy Thomas: Hi everyone! Kathy here from The Connectory.

Jolene Gustafson: Hello! Jolene Gustafson here from NGC/The Connectory.

Gregory Jackson - NAPE: Gregory Jackson: NAPE - Program Manager

Mo Fong: Hello from Mo!

Randy Freedman: Randy Freedman at Society of Women Engineers. Great networking and idea generation working with NGCP.

Mo Fong: Mo from Google :-)

Karen Peterson: Hello everyone! Thanks for joining the meeting today.

Judith Iriarte-Gross: Judith Iriarte-Gross, AWIS Collaboration with others who want to see girls and women succeed in STEM

Jose Antonio Tijerino: Hi it's Antonio Tijerino from Hispanic Heritage Foundation!

Jose Antonio Tijerino: Hey Mo! So good to see you on this! Hola Erin and Karen and other superstars!

Karen Peterson: Hello Tony!

Melissa Ballard: Hi it's Melissa from CAISE

Erin Hogeboom: Hi Tony! Great to see you and HHF on here!

Erin Hogeboom: Hi Melissa, so fun to have you representing CAISE on the Champions Board!

Jose Antonio Tijerino: I'll be listening with headphones btw because have people in office that are loud, and my headphones don't have a microphone

Judith Iriarte-Gross: Love seeing the diversity in FabFems!

Erin Hogeboom: Welcome to your first Champions Board Meeting, John! We are so pleased you could make it!

Gina Carter: Hello all! Excited to be making FabFems even better than it already is. :)

John Baek: Hi this is John Baek.

Erin Hogeboom: No worries, John. Let us know if we can help you troubleshoot.

Jose Antonio Tijerino: I'd love to connect Erin and Karen to my really good friend and a true leader Alejandra Castillo who just became the CEO of the YWCA which oversees 2.2 million girls and women. She's fierce!!! and would be an asset to our efforts

Karen Peterson: We would love to meet her!

Jose Antonio Tijerino: Erin let's touch base in SD if you and your partner want to hang with the Tijerinos

Judith Iriarte-Gross: National women's history month activities

Mo Fong: Just quickly - if there's a full list of all FabFems who have been spotlighted in the past, that could be helpful. Right now, I see them one at a time.

Erin Hogeboom: Tony--yes! We would love to connect with Alejandra! I believe I reached out right when she started, but probably got lost in the shuffle. I can follow up again!

Mo Fong: Just found it.

Mo Fong: <https://www.fabfems.org/find>

Mo Fong: Could be more at the forefront.

Erin Hogeboom: Also, Tony, let's connect when you're in San Diego!

Casi Herrera: Oh perfect! Thanks for letting us know, Mo.

Casi Herrera: Please email me with any questions or suggestions: cherrera@ngcproject.org.

Kathy Thomas: The Connectory: <https://theconnectory.org>

Gina Carter: www.ncstemcenter.org

Erin Hogeboom: We would love to help you share information about The Connectory if you reside in a state that was on the lower end of that Opportunity data!

Erin Hogeboom: Our fabulous National Champions Board member, Tiffany Brown, also helps represent AIA on this Board!

Gregory Jackson - NAPE: Excellent!!

Erin Hogeboom: Tiffany spoke about the lack of diversity in architecture on one of our latest Leadership Team calls, that I'd be happy to share with any of you if you're interested!

Erin Hogeboom: If you or your organization can help elevate those promotional campaigns, we would greatly appreciate it!

Karen Peterson: With dinner!

Karen Peterson: and Refreshments

Judith Iriarte-Gross: Show the girls that women are "Dr." also

Karen Peterson: and dessert

Karen Peterson: Here is more information about the ASTC conference:

<http://www.astc.org/conference>.

Judith Iriarte-Gross: another organization might be SENCER = Science education for new civic engagement and responsibility, www.sencer.net

Erin Hogeboom: Thanks, Judith!! We will check that out!!

Erin Hogeboom: That example Dr. Mike provided is a great example of how you can help spread information about The Connectory when you meet folks who can benefit from the free platform!

Karen Peterson: Thanks everyone for your time and wisdom!

Mo Fong: Thanks Erin and all

Erin Hogeboom: Thank you so much!

Michael Smith (Dr. Mike): HAVE A GREAT DAY!

Discussion Questions

Is there anything your organization is doing that others on the call can assist you with or promote?

Mo Fong: Not specifically for girls only, but in case this might be helpful for your network:

<http://www.ala.org/news/member-news/2018/06/alas-libraries-ready-code-release-beta-collection-2018-annual-conference>.

HHF: We just launched our Hispanic Heritage Youth Awards, would be great to share with educators, parents, and eligible applicants: <http://hhfyouthawards.com/2018/forms/welcome.php>

Mo Fong: Yes, and the ready code release beta.

Are you aware of national efforts or campaigns that NGCP or like-minded organizations should be aware of?

Are you working with new or existing partners who might be interested in championing the NGCP?

Mo Fong: Girls Leadership <https://girlsleadership.org/>

HHF: YWCA: <https://www.ywca.org/>

HHF: DIY Girls: <https://www.diygirls.org/>

Erin Hogeboom: <http://ngcproject.org/cs-outreach-program-evaluation-network-cs-open>

HHF: Girls Build LA: <http://girlsbuildla.weebly.com/>

Is your organization part of any new initiatives?

Michael Smith (Dr. Mike): GEM and DiscoverE are part of the 50K Coalition, which has a K-12 action network group that could benefit from NGCP and Connectory engagement.

www.50Kcoalition.org.

Michael Smith (Dr. Mike): I believe so.... yes. The lead orgs are NSBE, AISES, SHPE and SWE.

Mo Fong: 50kcoalition is a great resource - thanks for sharing!
