

Brite Family and Caregiver Information Meeting Chat Transcript, July 9, 2020

00:14:43 Betsy Connell: Betsy from Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia
00:14:48 David Rouff: Hello this is Tricia from St. Louis. My daughter is involved through Girl Scouts of Eastern Mo
00:14:53 Wendy Williams-Peterkin: Wendy from Girl Scouts of Eastern Missouri
00:15:09 Ariana Pertuz: Ariana from New York
00:15:14 Sue Sasko: Sue Sasko, Palm Harbor, FL
00:15:17 Sheila King: My daughter will be going into 11th grade in the Fall and will be an Ambassador.
00:15:27 Joy: Joy. Daughter is Maia from Milwaukee
00:15:36 Janeen's iPhone: Hello. Janeen from St. Petersburg, Florida
00:15:41 Jessica del Rosario-Amerisure Ins. for American Builders Supply: hi from milwaukee. My daughter izzy is in the MSOE program
00:16:06 Andrea Beitler: girls scouts historic georgia
00:17:29 ANN: Ann Zabski from Vidalia, Ga. My daughter Katie is in the 8th grade
00:17:52 Rich: how long will this session be
00:17:59 Marisa Garcia: planned for 1 hour
00:18:13 T.E. Foster: Good Day Ann and All!
00:18:43 ANN: Ann My audio is cutting in and out
00:20:13 Karen Peterson: Is anyone else having audio issues?
00:20:41 Arada Halder: no audio issues for me (using laptop on home Wifi)
00:22:49 Karen Peterson: Feel free to ask questions here in the chat.
00:22:55 Karen Peterson: Thank you all for joining us!
00:29:27 Sheila King: Can you repeat the themes for the weeks again please?
00:29:41 jen stancil: art x science
00:29:46 jen stancil: danger! week 2
00:29:54 jen stancil: mind matters week 3
00:30:25 Rich: will there be a recording or set of powerpoints to reference afterwards?
00:30:54 Karen Peterson: Yes, we are recording this and will send the ppt and recording after to program leaders.
00:31:04 Karen Peterson: You can also put your email in the chat, and I'll send it directly to you.
00:31:28 Rich: rashepard@outlook.com
00:31:34 Karen Peterson: Or are you asking about the talks? Rich?
00:31:35 Renae: renaestephenson@yahoo.com
00:31:37 Sheila King: sheilacsuf@gmail.com
00:31:43 Karen Peterson: Thanks everyone!
00:31:46 Wendy Williams-Peterkin: wendylwilliams@msn.com
00:31:51 LBieri: lisaohland@hotmail.com
00:31:52 Joy: Is there a list of supplies or materials they might need
00:32:07 David Rouff: trouff@intmar.com
00:32:26 Kristen Ruppert-Leach: Dr.ruppertleach@gmail.com
00:32:36 Maria: mdturner793@gmail.com
00:32:46 Dr. Andrasik: andrasik.stephen@spcollege.edu
00:32:52 Andrea Beitler: andrea.pearson1@gmail.com
00:33:16 Noelle Collins: what about schedule conflicts - mandatory yearbook training.
00:33:43 Trish Saleeby: I appreciate the focus on building a STEM identity for the female participants. This certainly will help to counteract the negative gender stereotypes that exist. The need for positive role models are another crucial element. So will all the speakers be women? Or will some be men who are advocates for decreasing the gender disparities that exist in STEM?

00:33:52 jen stancil: the "courses" are day by day and so they can be completed if you miss a morning.

00:33:57 Rich: my daughter actually did a flipbook of a volcano ironically :)

00:34:22 Karen Peterson: All the speakers for this program are female.

00:34:30 Karen Peterson: We agree that men ARE advocates!

00:34:35 Sue Sasko: If a participant would like to receive volunteer hours for Bright futures Scholarship (FL), do they ask their guidance counsellor for a form to complete for credit?

00:34:57 Trish Saleeby: Thanks Karen

00:35:08 Andrea Beitler: great!

00:35:45 jen stancil: Sue - I think the team at the oceanography institute could sign for their bright futures scholarship.

00:35:46 Karen Peterson: All students will receive certificates, but we can complete a form if necessary as well.

00:35:56 Karen Peterson: Yes, Jen - good call.

00:36:28 Dr. Andrasik: That is so cool

00:37:57 jen stancil: Becca works at the Perot Museum and we'll be showing girls the exhibit there as a part of their learning.

00:39:50 Ethan: So all virtual sessions are through zoom?

00:40:25 Noelle Collins: Are there scholarships associated with your non profit partners that our girls can apply for?

00:40:39 Ann: Ann Do we access the program through zoom?

00:40:49 Jessica del Rosario-Amerisure Ins. for American Builders Supply: is there a program during the school year also?

00:40:54 Marisa Garcia: Flipgrid

00:40:58 Sheila King: Flip Grid. Sorry

00:40:59 Noelle Collins: Thanks!

00:41:02 jen stancil: Flipgrid is a portfolio program

00:41:18 Trish Saleeby: Will there be a participant list shared with the girls so they can remain in contact and continue peer relationships in STEM.

00:41:20 Robert Mackinson: Does Flipgrid work on Chromebooks?

00:41:26 Betsy Connell: I would be interested in scholarship information too - bconnell@gshg.org

00:41:28 Ethan: Can you please include the scholarship information for all participants?

00:41:31 Joy: This sounds so interesting. Wish they had it when I was young

00:41:49 Sheila King: I would be interested in the scholarship information also.

00:41:53 Renee Bohus: What is the ratio of girls to program leader

00:41:59 Trish Saleeby: OK thank you.

00:42:20 LBieri: yes please!

00:42:32 Ethan: I would be interested in scholarship information too - babybayrs@live.com

00:42:43 Sheila King: So is Girl Scouts a "program?"

00:42:45 Rich: what are the age range of girls in the program?

00:42:58 jen stancil: ages 13 - 16!

00:43:18 Ethan: Can I ask how many girls are in the program?

00:43:26 Marisa Garcia: 160!

00:43:31 LBieri: if a girl decides she has an interest in a certain field is there resources for continuing ed

00:43:45 Marisa Garcia: everyday provides a list of additional resources

00:44:10 Sue Sasko: How are the cohorts formed?

00:44:31 jen stancil: Yes! The National Girls Collaborative Project runs a site called Fab Fems as well as a new database that features some of our speakers, so you'll find many women there! I

00:44:51 Rich: curious, is there any intersection between 'coding' and 'science'

00:45:14 Rich: i'm IT and wondering she has expressed an interest in coding

00:46:01 jen stancil: Rich - yes! in week 1, we'll have a person who founded STEM from Dance which uses dance and coding together, much like the group iLuminate, which you may have seen on Americas Got Talent.

00:46:35 Marisa Garcia:there are also some options for choosing basic coding activities, and in Week 1 there is an option for coding a dance party :)

00:46:37 jen stancil: In addition to that, NGCP works with Sci Girls and there is an entire video series online about girls and coding.

00:47:04 Trish Saleeby: My daughters really like Sci Girls!

00:47:06 jen stancil: www.pbskids.org/scigirls

00:48:12 Arada Halder: Rich also check out girlswhocode.com

00:49:56 Ethan: is this the first time for the program?

00:50:29 jen stancil: Yes, this is a first time collaboration and pilot program with our three organizations. :D

00:50:56 Rich: i have split custody with mom, she'll probably forward the forms, but if not could you send one to my email?

00:51:07 Karen Peterson: Yes, Rich. Will do.

00:51:17 Trish Saleeby: I know this is a first time program, but will there be "alumni" events to keep the girls in contact. I would love to have my daughter stay in contact with a positive, STEM oriented group.

00:52:08 Karen Peterson: Trish - that's a great idea!

00:52:10 jen stancil: What a great idea! We are trying to make sure there is a celebration at the end of camp!

00:52:43 jen stancil: Each Friday has a celebration built in, but having a "check in" later would be fun. Thank you for suggesting that.

00:52:45 Wendy Williams-Peterkin: I received an email referencing a media release form. I have yet to receive it.

00:53:02 Karen Peterson: Wendy - they are going out this evening/early tomorrow.

00:53:20 Karen Peterson: Watch for an email from a DocuSign account.

00:53:29 Arada Halder: Wendy we're also GSEM and got the same email from Mary.

00:54:37 Wendy Williams-Peterkin: Arada, Thank you! Perhaps we will receive today or tomorrow.

00:54:48 Sue Sasko: Thank you!

00:56:17 Sheila King: It sounds wonderful. My daughter is very excited to participate.

00:58:32 Dr. Andrasik: I have two daughters that are participating. can they use one computer?

00:59:44 Dr. Andrasik: Thanks, it's not a problem

01:00:53 Dr. Andrasik: Hah, Sounds good

01:01:13 Marisa Garcia:Thank you, everyone. I need to go but really can't wait to see what your girls learn and do!

01:01:14 Kristen Ruppert-Leach: Thank you so much! This sounds amazing!

01:01:16 Trish Saleeby: Thank you for this informative session. My daughter Sassy is excited in starting!

01:01:16 Karen Peterson: kpeterson@ngcproject.org

01:01:54 Trish Saleeby: How do we access recordings?

01:02:03 Noelle Collins: Thanks for the session!

01:02:10 Trish Saleeby: This one and speakers!

01:02:21 Joy: Thank you for this opportunity for the girls

01:02:42 Sue Sasko: It's going to be a Brite month! Great opportunity!!

01:02:43 T.E. Foster: tefoster2002@gmail.com

01:02:44 David Rouff: Thank you for your time and efforts!

01:02:51 Sheila King: Thank you.

01:03:00 Dr. Andrasik: thank you

01:03:01 Ethan: Thank you all too!